

Daniel Naroditsky / First Scholastic Inductee into the Cal Chess Hall of Fame

Posted by eric on Thursday, September 01 @ 09:59:31 CDT

Daniel at SF Championship (Shorman)

We are proud to announce that Daniel Naroditsky is the first scholastic inductee into the Cal Chess Hall of Fame.

You can read his bio here:

CHESS BIOGRAPHIES!

Daniel satisfied the following 2 scholastic criterias to earn his spot in the Cal Chess Hall of Fame.

#1 He is rated #1 in the country in the age 9 category.
(See the top 100 calchess list)

#2 He won 1st place in the national championships this year in the 3rd grade section.

Recently Daniel represented the US in the Youth World Youth championship in which he earned a respectable 5th place.

Expect to see more accomplishments by this amazing young player in the future!

This was Daniel's first public simul

He played an estimated 20 boards and won all games.

Daniel won another trophy for his vast collection for this performance.